

JAROSLAV FENYK

Vice-President of the Constitutional Court of the Czech Republic

- 1986 Graduation - Faculty of Law at Charles University in Prague ,
- 1987 Doctor of Law in the field of criminal law – theory of the state and law.
- 2001 Ph.D. in the field of material and procedural criminal law
- 2002 Associated Professor
- 2004 Private University Professor (Univ. Priv. Prof.) - University of Miskolc, Hungary.
- 2008 Doctor of Social and Humanitarian Sciences (DSc.) - the Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic.
- 2009 Professor of Criminal Law
- 1999 Deputy of the Supreme Public Prosecutor
- 2006 Attorney at Law
- 2013 Justice and Vice-President of the Constitutional Court

Prof. Fenyk has been on a number of research fellowships abroad, he has been a member of expert committees at the Council of Europe and working groups at the European Commission, and has taken part in many international conferences and seminars. He has worked with professional bodies and research institutions abroad (including the Institute for Post-graduate Legal Education in Atlanta, the Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law in Freiburg, the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies at the University of London, the Academy of European Law in Trier, universities in Vienna, Rotterdam, Nijmegen, Ghent, Stockholm, Örebro, Miskolc and Luxemburg, the John Marshall Law School in Chicago, etc.).

Author of hundreds of papers, reviews, articles and monographies.